RFP for Appointment of Consultant(s) for the Due Diligence of Summit Bank Limited
COMPLIANCE WITH SPPRA RULE 48

SPPRA Rule 48 states as follows:

"Acceptance of Bids-Even when only one bid is submitted, the bidding process may be considered valid, if the bid was advertised in accordance with rules, and prices are comparable to the prices or rates of the last awarded contract or market prices."

The work to be carried out with regard to the consultancy is of such a nature that there is no ready market for such services as these are highly specialized and human skill oriented as well as based on the size of the institution concerned as this is related to the additional volume of work to be performed. Also public information of the fee charged for such assignments is not available.

No public information being available about the cost of other due diligence exercises, the only reference point here is a similar exercise conducted on behalf of Sindh Bank at the end of 2014/start of 2015. Taking this into consideration, and the increase workload that the Consultants will encounter in the Summit Bank assignment, the reasonableness of the Financial Proposal may be assessed by the Committee:

Comparison of KASB Bank & Summit Bank fees quoted versus Increase in work involved:

	KASB Bank in 2014	Summit Bank in 2016-7	%age Increase in volume
	PKR m/fillions
Capital & Reserves	1,373	11,424	732%
Deposits	57,505	127,322	121%
Advances	19,506	81,331	317%
Branches	105	192	83%

Comparison of Financial Cost

	Bids received (incl SST)
	PKR m/fn	PKR m/fn
Deloitte Pakistan consortium	15,375,000	16,056,000
Ernst & Young consortium	12,075,000	16,056,000
Grant Thornton consortium	11,500,000	16,056,000
